BATAVIA WILL END MEET WITH A BANG

The meet at Batavia Downs Gaming is drawing to a close, but the few remaining programs feature some exciting promotions for the New York racetrack's patrons.

Friday, December 1, Batavia hosts its $1,000 Customer Appreciation Night. Gift certificates worth $100 each will be given away following each of the first 10 races.

On December 2, the final night of Batavia's meet, the upstate New York raceway will feature a must-pay Pick-6 Pool in its free Pick-6 contest.

December 2 also marks the day a "Trip Giveaway" drawing will be held. It's the culmination of the track's "Caring for Kids" promotion in which racing fans have had the opportunity to donate toys and receive entries to win prizes. Since mid-November, patrons have been bringing new, unwrapped toys to Batavia. Soon the toys will be delivered by Downs harness drivers to local hospitals in Batavia, Rochester and Buffalo. Following the 7th race on Saturday, names will be drawn for prizes. First prize is a Trip to Florida, Las Vegas, the Bahamas, or a cruise valued at $1,500, compliments of locally owned Taco Bell Restaurants. Second prize is a Buffalo Sabres jersey autographed by Ryan Miller and valued at $300. Third prize is a Buffalo Sabres program signed by Sabres Defenseman Teppo Numminen.

DOLLAR NIGHT SPECIALS WEDNESDAYS AT POMPANO

Every Wednesday is $1 Night at Pompano Park with draft beer, hot dogs, Pepsi sodas, popcorn, and large pretzels all just $1 each starting at 6 p.m.

The track is also featuring poker tournaments on Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays.
